

MISSION

Army Family Team Building empowers individuals, maximizing their personal growth and professional development through specialized training, transforming our community into a resilient and strong foundation meeting today's military mission.

WHY SHOULD I ATTEND?

AFTB helps you to not just cope with, but enjoy the military lifestyle. Many of the courses can be applied toward resume' and career building, self-development and leadership skills.

AFTB provides the knowledge and self-confidence to take responsibility for yourself and your Family. The training is available to Soldiers, Family members of all Soldiers, Department of Defense civilians and volunteers.

Upon request, our instructors can provide individual modules from each of the levels for any unit or organization in either stand alone sessions or in concept blocks covering related topics. These are great for both Families and for Soldiers, especially if your unit is looking for professional development series. Our instructors can also offer "Formal Functions Made Easy" - a one hour module of customs, courtesies and protocol related to military balls.
