LIBRARY

Do you love, love, love coloring? Do crayons and markers make your day? Is Thanksgiving one of your favorite holidays? Do you gobble, gobble, gobble when you see a turkey? The libraries have something just for you! Back by popular demand is our Thanksgiving coloring contest. We have three separate categories: Children ages 3-6, Children ages 7-10, and age 11 and above (that includes adults)! Stop by Rose Barracks or Tower Barracks libraries during the month of November and pick up your coloring sheet and be sure to turn it in before Friday, November 30. Contest winners will be notified the first week of December and all entries will be on display at the libraries.

If you are planning to stay in town over Thanksgiving weekend, stop by the Rose Barracks Library from 4-5 p.m. on Friday, November 23 or the Tower Barracks Library between noon and 5 p.m. Saturday, November 24 to play some board games. Work off some turkey, take a break from holiday shopping and test out some games. Maybe you'll find the perfect one you can go out and buy for the family later. We have games ranging from Clue to Connect4 to Catan, Scrabble, Chess and Apples to Apples. Some for the little kids and some for the big kids. Bring your family and friends to join in on the fun.
